

A photograph of several small wooden figures with round heads and cylindrical bodies, some painted in colors like teal, purple, pink, and yellow, arranged on a wooden surface. A green semi-transparent box is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing text.

INTERNATIONAL WEEK

OF THE FACULTY OF SOCIAL SERVICES,
CAMPUS PADERBORN

2 to 5 June 2025

Social Conflicts, Discrimination and Inequality –
Challenges for Social Work and Early Childhood
Pedagogy

katho

Katholische Hochschule Nordrhein-Westfalen
Catholic University of Applied Sciences

SCHEDULE International Week

Monday, June 2

Room: AM 001

13.30:

Arrival

14.00:

Martin Winands (katho, Paderborn):
Welcome/Introduction

Patrick Isele/Gregor Buß (deans, katho Paderborn):
Welcome

14.30-15.30:

Christoph Blomberg (katho, Paderborn):
Are we allowed to be political?

Harri Mäkinen (Kotka, Finland):
Social field & media education.
Contemporary situation and challenges in Finland

Heloisa Reis (Campinas, Brazil):
The rise of the far right in Brazil

15.30-16.00:

Break

16.00:

Campus tour (Gregor Buß, katho Paderborn)

17.15:

Closing and walk to the hotels
Free evening activities

katho

Katholische Hochschule Nordrhein-Westfalen
Catholic University of Applied Sciences

SCHEDULE International Week

Tuesday, June 3

Room: AM 001

9.15:

Opening

9.30-10.45:

Marc Breuer (katho, Paderborn):

Transnational relations in social work. Explorations on the example of France and Germany

Stephen Ntim (Sunyani, Ghana):

Preschool teachers' simultaneous use of L1 and L2 with dual language learners to bridge L1 to connect with L2: Evidence from Ghana

Gulshat Ouadine (katho, Paderborn):

Challenges in social work: A perspective on Kazakhstan and Germany (Workshop)

10.45-11.00:

Break

11.00-11.15:

Barbara Schermaier-Stöckl (rector of katho NRW):

Welcome

11.15-12.15:

Zhanar Abdykalykova (Almaty, Kazakhstan):

Social work and early childhood protection: Case Kazakhstan

Dinara Yessimova (Astana, Kazakhstan):

Mandatories of social work and early childhood pedagogy

Julia Höke (katho, Paderborn):

Create a framework in which children can act – student perspectives on children's participation in the context of generational order

12.15-13.00:

Lunch

13.15:

Departure to LWL Open Air Museum (Detmold)

Return at approx. 18.30:

Free evening activities

katho

Katholische Hochschule Nordrhein-Westfalen
Catholic University of Applied Sciences

SCHEDULE International Week

Wednesday, June 4

Room: AM 001

9.15:
Opening

9.30-10.30:
Ulzhan Berikbolova (Kyzylorda, Kazakhstan):
The role of social work with young women in reducing gender asymmetry in the regional labor market

Mohammed Sanka (Tamale, Ghana):
Towards a pragmatic definition of indigenous peoples in Ghana: An innovative means for safeguarding the right to development of Ghanaian peoples

Alen Kuriakose (Kuttikkanam, India):
Development of an intervention model for students with specific learning disabilities in higher education

10.30-11.00:
Break

11.00-12.30: Student's Session:
Meri Berg (Paderborn), Violet Simiyu,
Phyllis Gichimu (Nairobi, Kenya),
Maren Ziese (katho, Paderborn) and students;
Maja Gratzfeld (Haifa, Israel) and students;
Daisy Kendi (photographer, Kenya):
Sustainability, gender, sexual and reproductive health and rights in international perspective
(presentation of a student's seminar)

Student's class of Martin Winands (katho, Paderborn):
Social conflicts, discrimination and inequality.
Challenges for social work (student's poster session)

12.30-13.15:
Lunch

13.15-14.15:
Ajesh Parackal Joseph (Kuttikkanam, India):
Community-driven pedagogy: A case study of the Mannan Tribal Community in Kerala

Thomas Binu (Kuttikkanam, India):
Examining the influence of crime-based media on teen behavioral patterns and learning ability

Marei Lunz (katho, Paderborn):
Social exclusion through residential care?
Empirical results from a perspective of young adults placed in closed youth homes in Luxembourg

14.15-14.30:
Break

14.30-15.30:
Laure Liénard (Lille, France):
Preventing violence in social work institutions

Martin Adokiya (Tamale, Ghana):
Harnessing minorities' access and utilization of health services through Community Health Management
Committees in Northern Ghana

Felipe Lopes (Campinas, Brazil):
The fight of football fans against fascism in Brazil

15.45-17.15:
Guided city tour (subsequently walk to the hotels)

18.30:
Dinner at katho
Come together

katho

Katholische Hochschule Nordrhein-Westfalen
Catholic University of Applied Sciences

SCHEDULE International Week

Thursday, June 5

Room: AM 001

9.30-10.00:

International Office
International mobility at katho

10.00-11.00:

Open meetings concerning further topics

11.00-11.30:

Break

11.30-12.00:

Closing

12.00:

Lunch

Contact:

Prof. Dr. Martin Winands (katho, Paderborn)
m.winands@katho-nrw.de

Magdalena Koy (International Office – katho, Paderborn)
m.koy@katho-nrw.de

katho

Katholische Hochschule Nordrhein-Westfalen
Catholic University of Applied Sciences